WEGLfest rocks for the “War on Hunger” campaign. Saturday, April 25th, five bands from around the Southeast will perform, including Tony Brook, The Magnolia Sons, Red Mouth, Weak Music for Thomas and Three Happenin Guys.

WEGLfest will be held in the A-U Student Center Ballroom. Doors will open at 3 p.m. and tickets will be sold for three-dollars. WEGLfest is open to students, faculty and Auburn citizens of all ages. There will be several door prizes, including a ticket to Bonnaroo.

All proceeds from the day will go directly to the charity. “War on Hunger” is a program that links Auburn University with the United Nations World Food Programme.

The World Food Programme is the largest humanitarian organization in the world and has provided food to an average of 90 million people in at least 80 of the world's poorest countries.

All bands and musicians have agreed to donate their time for the charity.

WEGLfest will be an afternoon of great live music, dancing and fun. Come rock with us and help support the "War on Hunger" campaign.
