Musician Tony Brook will kick off WEGLfest

AUBURN, Ala. (April 17)—Tony Brook is scheduled to play at Auburn’s first WEGLfest, sponsored by WEGL 91.1 FM, on Saturday, April 25, 2009. Brook has agreed to donate his time and talent for the “War on Hunger” campaign.

Brook, an Alabama native, was born in 1954 in Montgomery, Ala. His musical talent was noticed by his parents at an early age. He picked up his first guitar at the age of 7 and has since made a life out of performing.

Brook has recorded four albums, all containing original music. Whether accompanied by his band or solo, Brook always provides an entertaining musical combination of acoustic country and rock.

Through the years, Brook has shared the stage with several country legends including Willie Nelson, Waylon Jennings, Tanya Tucker, Robert Earl Keen, Lucinda Williams, Pat Green, Jamie Johnson and Ray Charles.

Brook is a critically acclaimed songwriter and has performed in venues across the United States, as well as Europe.

“There are so many great songs...the listeners deserve it,” said Gerd Stassen, 95.5 FM in Lengerich, Germany.

Although Brook has traveled the world with his music, he has yet to stray too far from home. Brook currently resides in Lochapoaka, Ala., and plays frequently around the Auburn, Montgomery and Birmingham areas.

“I was really honored when I was asked to play for WEGLfest,” said Brook. “I’ve played for so many years in thousands of places, but the times that I have been able to contribute to charities, especially one as important as “War on Hunger,” have stuck out in my mind and make what I do feel meaningful.”

Brook will start the concert off at 3 p.m. He will be performing his original music solo. Albums and shirts will be sold during the concert.
